

KEY CONCEPT	COMPONENTS
Fashion (Topic: uniform) Young people from both Chinese and Australian cultures often need to wear uniforms in school to cultivate the team spirit of the students, and to strengthen the overall image of the school.	CULTURE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● China's school uniforms are mainly sportswear and only a handful of school uniforms have been updated as Western uniforms. For example, Taiwan and Hong Kong school uniforms are usually sailor uniforms or cheongsam. ● The colours of Chinese uniforms are often blue, black and red with a small part being white or yellow. Summer school uniforms usually have short-sleeved shirts and in some schools girls' summer uniforms are skirts. In some school, the winter school uniforms are relatively thin and sweaters and other warm clothing can be added underneath the uniforms. Some schools have spring and autumn uniforms. Except on specific occasions, the school generally allows students to freely choose how to match their uniforms.
	CONNECTION <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The aim is for the Australian students is to learn what the school life of their counterparts in China is like by knowing what they wear. ● It allows Australian students to know more about the social expectations of students by Chinese people by knowing what their students wear.
	LANGUAGE After learning the course, students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● pronounce and write the names of various uniforms in different seasons in Chinese, especially those ones that are popular in China, such as chun ji xiao fu, dong ji xiao fu, qun zi, ku zi, yun dong xing xiao fu, qi pao xiao fu, etc. ● recognize words relevant with uniform, such as nan sheng, nv sheng, da lu etc. ● recognize Pinyin of simple characters.
	Achievement standard The term enables students to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● recognize different uniforms in Chinese. ● use vocabulary, phrases and simple sentences in Chinese to express them. ● be aware of the cultural difference between uniforms of western countries and China. ● be able to say the vocabulary, phrases and simple sentences in Chinese accurately. ● write in both Pinyin and simple characters, including the range of strokes and their sequences in character writing.