Volunteering at Magill School

Magill welcomes people of all ages with a diverse range of skills, backgrounds, interests and a passion for helping others to assist around the school.

Volunteers play a vital role ensuring that Magill can deliver a range of important programmes to our community.

Volunteers are a big part of the community life within our school and make a valuable contribution by giving their time and skills for the benefit of others. There are currently more than 110 volunteers who participate in the school in varying roles.

This brochure outlines the range of opportunities available. Once you have reviewed the opportunities that are available, contact the school to discuss your interest an the application process.

"We simply could not achieve all that we do without the support and efforts of our volunteers".

Respect Excellence Honesty Responsibility

As a volunteer with Magill School, you will join more than 6.4 million other volunteers who give their time, expertise and skills to communities around the nation.

Why volunteer?

Whilst volunteers provide tremendous support to the school community, the very act of volunteering can also greatly benefit individuals who choose to volunteer.

Volunteering is an opportunity to give back to the community, to develop new skills, meet new people and build long lasting relationships.

Volunteering will enable you to:

- Contribute to a community service:
- Broaden your skills
- Meet people, make friends and be actively involved in the school community:
- Build personal confidence and self-esteem: and
- Gain a sense of satisfaction, knowing that you have made a positive difference to the lives of others.

Magill School Volunteer Program

All volunteers must have a current child related employment screening conducted by the Department for Communities and Social Inclusion DCSI and a certificate of participation for Responding to Abuse and Neglect RAN Induction session for volunteers.

The following opportunities' are available for volunteers in the school community.
